Hail to the Queen!

Watching throngs of students scurry to class or gather in the café, who would know that the face of a beauty queen is hidden among the crowd?

On October 23, 2005, HPU freshman and Special Education major Elizabeth Carty was crowned Miss United States Teen for the 2005-2006 year.

Elizabeth is from High Point, NC and is involved in the Special Olympics, tutoring at elementary schools and raising money for Multiple Sclerosis. She is a member of the University's cheerleading squad and is the community service coordinator for the squad.

As Miss United States Teen, she would like to speak to teenagers about promoting healthy lifestyles and building high self-esteem.

Elizabeth is a vivacious, affectionate and loyal individual who says, "Success is when you feel that you have given 100% and lived life to the fullest."

Elizabeth's grandfather, Dr. Cryus L. Gray, was on HPU's Board of Trustees, and was the first person in HPU history to graduate and go on to become a doctor.

We're proud of you, Elizabeth!
