Dear Faculty, Staff and Graduate Students;

Welcome back! On the following pages we've highlighted some of our resources and services available for you. All of the titles are linked to the catalog and every picture or blue link goes directly to a page or an e-mail address for quick access.

Please contact us for more information or with any questions you may have.

We wish you all the best for a great semester.

High Point University Libraries
HPU Libraries is excited to announce access to a new streaming video resource, Academic Video Online (AVON) from Alexander Street Press.

This collection gives the HPU family access to over 54,000 videos, including such exciting sub collections as PBS Video Collection, 60 Minutes: 1997-2014, and The BBC Video Collection.

For a narrower focus, try one of the Discipline pages linked below to help you get started with this extensive collection:

To see all included collections, click on:

and then on “My Collections” to get links to each of the smaller collections within Academic Video Online from Alexander Street Press.

If you have any questions about this resource, please contact Amy Chadwell or David Bryden.
HPU Libraries wishes Andrew Tzavaras all the best as he leaves us to attend Oxford University.

HPU Libraries welcomes Jennifer Erdmann as our new Head of Reference.

School of Education Resource Center

The School of Education is ready for another great semester!

We are looking forward to our annual Halloween Party this year, we will post the date on our Library Events page in early October.

We continue to add great new books to our collection; see our featured titles below and click on the image to link directly to our catalog.

Come by and visit us and don't forget to bring the little ones over to check out books before our holiday breaks!

For more information on the School of Education Resource Center, including book lists and teaching resources, please see our research guide.
