PSALM 100

Make a joyful noise to the Lord, serve the Lord with gladness,
Come into His presence with singing, Alleluia!
Know that the Lord is God, it is He who made us, not we ourselves.
We are His people, the sheep of his pasture, and we are His. Alleluia!
Enter His gates with thanksgiving, and His courts with praise,
Give thanks to Him and praise His holy name. Alleluia!
For the Lord is good, His mercy endures forever,
And His faithfulness endures, from generation to generation, from age to age.
Alleluia! Amen!

THE SEAL LULLABY

Oh! hush thee, my baby, the night is behind us,
And black are the waters that sparkled so green.
The moon, o’er the combers, looks downward to find us
At rest in the hollows that rustle between.
Where billow meets billow, then soft by thy pillow;
Ah, weary wee flipperling, curl at thy ease!
The storm shall not wake thee, nor shark overtake thee,
Asleep in the arms of the slow-swinging seas.

-Rudyard Kipling

SICUT CERVUS

Translation:
As the deer pants for water,
So my soul longs after you, O God.

WATER NIGHT

Night with the eyes of a horse that trembles in the night,
Night with eyes of water in the field asleep
Is in your eyes, a horse that trembles is in
Your eyes of secret water.
Eyes of shadow-water,
Eyes of well-water,
Eyes of dream-water.
Silence and solitude,
Two little animals moon-led,
Drink in your eyes,
Drink in those waters.
If you open your eyes, night opens doors of musk,
The secret kingdom of the water opens
Flowing from the center of the night.
And if you close your eyes,
A river, a silent and beautiful current, fills you from within,
Flows forward, darkens you:
