Community Affairs Q&A
Announcements

• SGA Debate
  o Sunday, March 16, 2014
  o 6:00 PM, Phillips 120

• HPU SERVES 2014 Showcase
  o On April 2, 2014, the Service Learning Program and SGA will host the 2nd Annual HPU SERVES Showcase of service events and projects that organizations have completed in the High Point community. Please see “HPU SERVES 2014 Showcase: Guidelines for Creating a Poster” handout if you would like to submit a poster.

• The Students Achieve Miracles Project
  o The Students Achieve Miracles Project is dedicated to promoting and inspiring Greensboro high school seniors to fight the “norm” of being economically, emotionally, and socially unstable to withstand the journey to college. By granting miracles to these high achieving yet underserved students, we are attempting to even the playing field for a handful of students who hope to positively impact those around them.

• Open Door Ministries: Men’s Clothing Closet volunteer opportunity o Looking for students or group of students who would be interested in organizing the Open Door Ministries Men’s Clothing Closet on Saturday, March 15, 2014 from 10:00 AM to 3:00 PM or for any period of time that students are available to volunteer. Clothes need to be sorted, washed, folded, and hung.
  o Contact Amanda Anderson: (336) 905-0106

• Volunteers needed for HPU Annual Track Meet on Friday, April 4 and Saturday, April 5.
  o The meet brings roughly 1500 athletes from over 30 schools and requires lots of volunteers to make it successful. Any students or groups who are interested can contact Nate Thiesfeld, HPU Assistant Track and Field Coach, at (336) 841-9268 or nthiesfe@highpoint.edu.
