Martin Luther King, Jr. was deeply committed to serving others and helping remedy the issues of social justice in this country. Every year, hundreds of people across the United States come together to honor MLK through various service projects in their local communities. This year, High Point University is partnering with our community to make MLK Day a day on rather than a day off.

HPU is coordinating various service projects that are on and off campus, and open to students, faculty, and staff, as well as other community members. To do so, we ask that campus organizations be as involved as possible in the day by coordinating their own projects. Projects should be approximately 4 hours in length and scheduled between the hours of 10 AM and 4 PM.

Initial Project Proposal Form due no later than 5 PM on Wednesday, October 8, 2014.

Finalized Project Form due no later than 5 PM on Wednesday, November 12, 2014.
