

HIGH POINT UNIVERSITY POLL
MEMO RELEASE (UPDATE) 3/2/2016

| ELEMENTS | DETAILS |
|---|---|
| Population represented | Adults in North Carolina. |
| Sample size | 476 adults in North Carolina (393=registered voter subsample). |
| Mode of data collection | Telephone (Random Digit Dial (RDD) landline and cellular telephones). Interviews conducted in English. |
| Type of sample (probability/non-probability) | Probability, using RDD samples of landline and cellular telephones generated by Survey Sampling International. Landline respondents were randomly selected within household by asking to speak with the person age 18 or older who has had the most recent birthday. |
| Start and end dates of data collection | February 18 – February 25, 2016 |
| Margin of sampling error for total sample | Approximately 4.5 percentage points for the all adult sample. Approximately 4.9 percentage points for the registered voter sample. The margin of error is not adjusted for sample weights. |
| Are the data weighted? | Yes, relative to U.S. Census (2014 American Community Survey and Population Estimates Program) estimates for age, race and gender as well as CDC estimates for phone usage (cell only, landline only, or both). |
| Survey sponsor and funded by Survey/Data collection supplier | High Point University Survey Research Center, High Point, NC High Point University Survey Research Center. The Center is located on the High Point University campus. Student interviewers staff the 42 stations equipped with WinCati computer assisted telephone interviewing systems. |

Connect NC Bond

Now I am going to ask you about some other public affairs issues.

For the primary election this year in North Carolina, there will be a referendum in which voters can vote for or against the state issuing what is called the "Connect North Carolina Public Improvement Bond." I am going to read the entire text of the language on the referendum. Please let me know if you support or oppose this proposal. Please listen to the entire paragraph since this is the language that will appear on primary ballots:

"The issuance of two billion dollars ($2,000,000,000) State of North Carolina Public Improvement Bonds constituting general obligation bonds of the State secured by a pledge of the faith and credit and taxing power of the State for the purpose of providing funds, with any other available funds, to fund capital improvements and new facilities for the State, including, without limitation, the construction and furnishing of new facilities and the renovation and rehabilitation of existing facilities for, without limitation, the University of North Carolina System, the North Carolina Community College System, water and sewer systems, the State's National Guard, the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services, attractions and parks, and the Department of Public Safety."

| | n= 474 | n=391 |

Under the U.S. Constitution, the President has the power to appoint U.S. Supreme Court Justices. President Obama has less than a year left in his presidency, but has said he intends to nominate someone to fill Justice Scalia's seat on the Supreme Court. Do you think that President Obama should or should NOT nominate someone to fill this seat on the U.S. Supreme Court?

| | All Adults | Registered Voters |
|---|------------|-------------------|
| Yes, President Obama should nominate a replacement | 38 | 38 |
| No, President Obama should not nominate a replacement | 60 | 60 |

| | n= 476 | n=393 |

Under the U.S. Constitution, the U.S. Senate has the power to confirm or reject the President's Supreme Court nominees. Mitch McConnell, the Majority Leader of the U.S. Senate, has said that the next President rather than President Obama should nominate the next U.S. Supreme Court Justice. Should the U.S. Senate consider any nominee that President Obama suggests or should the U.S. Senate not consider any nominees?

| | All Adults | Registered Voters |
