CAMPUS POLICE & SECURITY DEPARTMENT

PUBLIC ANNOUNCEMENT

The High Point University Campus Police Department is proud to announce that it will host an on-site assessment by the North Carolina Law Enforcement Accreditation (NCLEA) Program on Tuesday, September 29, 2026, as part of our agency's pursuit of accreditation.

Accreditation through NCLEA is a voluntary but highly respected process that recognizes law enforcement agencies for their commitment to professional excellence. By participating in this initiative, the High Point University Campus Police Department reaffirms its commitment to professionalism, transparency, accountability, and continuous improvement of service to our community.

As part of the accreditation process, agency employees and members of the public are encouraged to provide comments regarding the department's compliance with NCLEA standards.

Your feedback is appreciated and must be submitted by Monday, September 28, 2026. Your comments will be reviewed and considered by the NCLEA Assessment Team.

For details on the NCLEA standards, please visit the North Carolina Department of Justice website at NCLEA Standards (<https://ncdoj.gov/north-carolina-law-enforcement-accreditation/>).
