C - Small Curricular Revisions : Entry # 2312

Current Course Number & Name (prefix and number)	Proposed New Course Number & Name	Proposed new description	Brief rationale for change
EDU 4142: Special Education Policies and Procedures II	EDU 4142: Special Education Policies and Procedures II	A continuation of EDU 3140, this course focuses on the policies and procedures governing services for students with disabilities in grades K-12. Building on information covered in EDU 3140 the continuing process of the completion of North Carolina state forms used to document delivery of services for students with disabilities will be emphasized. The development of an Individual Educational Program, transition planning, monitoring and reporting of progress, classroom and testing accommodations/modifications, related services and effective parental and student involvement are topics to be covered. Other topics of focus include the manifestation determination process, reevaluations of students with disabilities, effective IEP Team meetings, and advocacy. Three credits	More accurate reflection of course content
