Revisions requested:

This form only allows for two course designators to be chosen. In addition to SMG and EMG, please add HSP to the list of course designators listed in this proposal.

Additionally, the course's revised number of credits is variable credit hours up to 12; however, this form only allows proposers to chose a specific number of hours.

Notes from the School of Communication EPC:

These courses will be:

- 1) Variable credit from 1 to 12 hours
- 2) Graded
- 3) Repeatable (for up to 12 hrs total)

Please describe the rationale for this change

Justification 1: The justification for changing the SMG/EMG/HSP 4811 courses to variable credit (1 – 12 hours) is that students in these majors sometimes find internships that would allow them to work more than the required 160 hours (4 credit hours) and they wish to earn academic credit for these hours worked.

Justification 2: We would like to make SMG/EMG/HSP 4811 repeatable so that students can take multiple internships for credit and have those hours counted toward the required 128 for graduation. Based on the Registrar's Office's policies, repeatable hours would be limited to 12 hours.

Summary: Students could take SMG/EMG/HSP 4811 in one semester for up to 12 hours or take SMG/EMG/HSP 4811 multiple times for up to 12 hours of credit. Students in the sport management, event management, and hospitality management majors are often participating in three or more internships during their time at HPU and this would allow them to earn academic credit for these experiences. Each of the majors (SMG, EMG, and HSP) would still only require 4-hours of academic credit for the internship experience. Anything over the 4 required hours would simply be "elective" hours counting toward their required 128 for graduation.
