Brief rationale for change

THE 1100
Theater
Participation

THE 1100 Theater
Practicum

Practical experience in stage managing, costume construction, scenery construction, scene painting, lighting crew, props crew, sound crew, running crew, and/or performance for High Point University productions during the semester.

Changing the name of the course from Theater Participation to Theater Practicum more accurately describes the intent of the THE 1100 course work. Students in THE 1100 gain hands on, practical experience through work in the Scenic, Costume, Electrics Shops as well as in rehearsal and production. Through these experiences, students apply the theoretical frameworks discussed in other courses while gaining relevant, real world work experience.
