DEAN Comments

I think Jay will need to include revised learning outcomes if this class moves from 4 credits to 2 credits. I am approving so that he can make those changes during the School review process.

Please describe the rationale for this change

The course will now be more skills based and taught in 1/2 semester. This will allow the material to still be covered in the major while leaving room for additional performance skills courses.

REVISED LEARNING OUTCOMES: THE 3230: Devised Theater

Existing 4 credit Course Learning Outcomes:

To extend students' understanding of historical and contemporary devised theatre practice.

To develop students' understanding of narrative and dramatic structure. (REMOVE)

To develop students' skill in creating and performing devised theatre.

To develop students' ability to reflect critically upon their creative process and performance.

To provide an arena for guest scholars and artists to work directly with students on original pieces. (REMOVE)

Revised 2 credit Course Learning Outcomes:

To extend students' understanding of historical and contemporary devised theatre practice.

To develop students' skill in creating and performing devised theatre.

To develop students' ability to reflect critically upon their creative process and performance.

This course, in its 2 credit version, will draw from historical and contemporary practice and develop skills in creating new original work.

Students have exposure to narrative/dramatic structure in THE 1410 and THE 3800. Students have regular opportunities to work with departmental guest artist in other arenas.
