Rationale for Proposed Curriculum

See attached document for full rationale, but in short we would like to add elective courses to the minor that are new - Leadership Fellows courses and Entrepreneurial Leadership and remove a required course to provide students with more elective options - this will increase the number of students who could complete a leadership minor

What Academic Divisions, University Officers, Programs, or other stakeholders are involved in, or affected by, this addition or change?

School of Entrepreneurship, Siegfried Fellows - Director Bergen proposed these changes and Dean Flanders-Stec has approved them

F - New or Revised Minor/Emphasis/Area of Concentration : Entry # 3598

Is this proposed curriculum consistent with the University and School Mission?

Yes, this change just updates the minor with additional elective options that are relatively new - The Leadership Fellows courses and Entrepreneurial Leadership

Does this proposal require an interim or transition plan, or can it be implemented immediately? If a transition plan is required, describe this or attach at the end of the proposal.

It can be implemented immediately. There is no need for a transition plan

Assessment Strategy

Adding these electives will have little or no change on current assessment strategies

Please attach department approval page and any other supporting documents. If this proposal requires additional resources beyond normal operating expenses of department, school, or University, attach Provost's Provisional Willingness to Consider.
