This revision updates the Musical Theater Minor for Fall 2027. It removes courses no longer offered, applies newer courses that support our musical theater emphasis, and replaces DNC 2001 and DNC 2101 with a new one-credit dance course. Credits are balanced across MUS, DNC, and THE, total credits remain the same, and no additional funding is required.

8 Please describe the rationale for the requested revision:

The minor has fallen out of step with both the Undergraduate Bulletin and what we currently teach. Because the Theater and Music listings do not match, students have received conflicting information about requirements, and some have gone looking for courses that no longer exist. Faculty in both departments have had difficulty advising students accurately. Musical theater performers need integrated training in acting, singing, and dance, and the minor was designed to give each discipline roughly equal weight. The new one-credit dance course was built specifically for musical theater students and gives them dance training suited to the demands of the form. This revision returns the minor to its original design and ensures every listed course is one students can actually take.

9 Is there any additional information you would like to share with the Registrar's Office?

This Minor should be housed under the Department of Theater & Dance and listed co-jointly with the Department of Music in the Undergraduate Bulletin.
