

HIGH POINT UNIVERSITY
Physician Assistant Studies

HIGH POINT UNIVERSITY
THE PREMIER LIFE SKILLS UNIVERSITY
Master of Physician Assistant Studies

Policy - Harassment and Student Grievances

Origin Date: November 15, 2013

Last Evaluated: April 2025

Responsible Party: Program Director

Minimum Review Frequency: Biennially

Approving Body: Principal Faculty

DPAS Associated Forms: None

ARC-PA Associated Standards:

A1.02 The sponsoring institution is responsible for:

j) defining, publishing, making readily available and consistently applying to students, its policies and procedures for processing student allegations of harassment,

A3.15 The program must define, publish, consistently apply and make readily available to students upon admission:

f) policies and procedures for allegations of student mistreatment, and
g) policies and procedures for student grievances and appeals.

Background and Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to provide clear expectations on requirements and procedures related to addressing issues related to student mistreatment, student grievances, and appeals.

Policy Statement

The Department of PA Studies abides by the High Point University policies related to Student mistreatment, grievances, and appeals. The University policies are available in the Student Guide to Campus Life and include the section titled “Title IX and Sexual Misconduct Grievance Policies”.

The Student Guide to Campus Life can be found on the High Point University website <https://www.highpoint.edu/studentlife/studentguidetocampuslife/>

Approved by: Principal Faculty

Modified: February 5, 2015, April 2017, April 2019, April 2021, April 2023

Next Review: Spring 2027